

Privacy Policy

We respect the privacy of visitors to this website and understand that information about you is sensitive. Except as otherwise provided by this website's Internet Privacy Statement, we will not sell, rent or give away your Personally Identifiable Information to any unrelated third party without your permission. We developed this Internet Privacy Statement to provide information about our practices regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of information that you may provide when you visit this website.

We encourage you to read this Internet Privacy Statement before using this website or submitting information. By using this website, you acknowledge that you understand and agree to the terms of the Internet Privacy Statement.

As you navigate through this website, we will automatically collect anonymous information about you and your activities during your visit. This information includes navigational data and web server logs, and may include (but is not limited to) information such as your IP address, the version of both your browser and operating system, and the URL of the website you just came from.

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and allows us to improve our website.

The information collected is gathered using a cookie ID and a country ID. This means that we will only be able to use statistical data that relates to groups of people, but will in no way be able to identify any individual or information or site activity related to any individual.

Personal information is only gathered via forms on the site, in which the user actively enters information and sends this to ATGmed – AT Technologies GmbH. In this case ATGmed – AT Technologies GmbH still respects and obeys the laws and regulations relating to gathering and storing personal information.
